ICCEPM Consortium

The International Consortium of Construction Engineering and Project Management (ICCEPM) has been reformulated in 2021 on the basis of continued collaborative efforts for ICCEPM conferences since 2005.

ICCEPM is a global academic society committed to promoting advancement in the area of construction engineering and project management. ICCEPM aims to establish a knowledge base for the area, accurately forecast future technology demands, improve industry practices, and facilitate knowledge transfer in the field of construction management through international collaboration.

The co-presidents of ICCEPM, professor Youngsoo Jung of Myongji University and professor Heng Li of Hong Kong Polytechnic University, are honored and grateful to have Japan as our host for 2024!

Please visit our website at <https://www.iccepm.org/> for further information about the consortium.

Conference Organizers: Conference chairs to be announced soon.

Technical Committee: Technical committee chairs to be announced soon.

List of academic paper reviewers - total 80 number of prominent academics and scholars worldwide to be announced soon.
